Pada proses ini, author mengunggah artikel yang akan dipublikasikan ke jurnal

Gambar 4. Selesai Upload

Pada bagian ini, pengelola jurnal memberikan pemberitahuan melalui email bahwa author telah melakukan submission ke jurnal.

2.1.2. Bukti review karya ilmiah dari reviewer jurnal

Bukti review karya ilmiah adalah dokumen atau informasi yang menunjukkan bahwa suatu artikel atau manuskrip telah melalui proses penilaian oleh para ahli (peer review) sebelum diterbitkan dalam jurnal ilmiah. Bukti dapat berupa ulasan atau komentar dari para reviewer yang menyarankan perbaikan atau memberikan masukan tentang kualitas dan validitas penelitian.

Gambar 5. Proses Review

Proses review jurnal dimulai dengan pengajuan naskah oleh penulis, kemudian editor melakukan pemeriksaan awal sebelum mengirimkan naskah ke reviewer yang akan menilai kualitas dan validitasnya; setelah itu, penulis diminta untuk merevisi sesuai masukan reviewer, hingga akhirnya editor mengambil keputusan untuk menerima atau menolak naskah sebelum diterbitkan.

Revision :

1. Abstract :

- The abstract should include four main elements: background, research objectives, brief methodology, and main results and contributions.

2. Introduction

- Provide information on the source of reference of the advantages of SVM in this problem.
- Add an explanation of the evaluation.

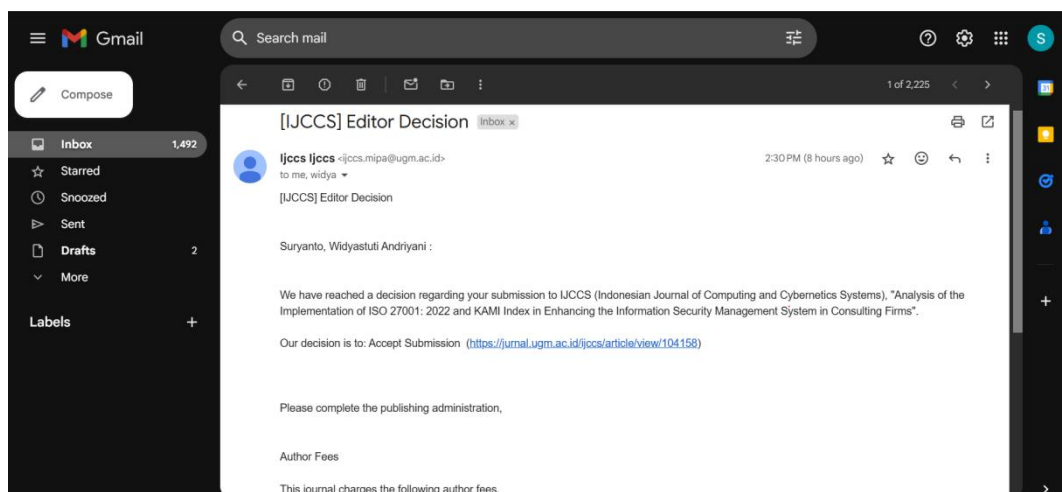

3. Methodology

- Before discussing each step, provide a brief description of the overall methodology.
- Include the reasons why each step is necessary and how it contributes to the research objectives.
- Describe the crawling data timeframe, the amount of data collected, and the tweet filtering criteria (e.g., language, number of retweets, or only original tweets). Mention how to deal with the limitations of the Twitter API
- Describe how these weights are integrated into the SVM model.
- Mention the kernel used in the study. Add an explanation if any parameter tuning in the SVM was done in the study (optional).
- The results should be separated into a separate section of another chapter
